A Reading From

Genesis 32 (ESV)

²⁴ And Jacob was left alone. And a man wrestled with him until the breaking of the day. ²⁵ When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he touched his hip socket, and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. ²⁶ Then he said, "Let me go, for the day has broken." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go unless you bless me." ²⁷ And he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob." ²⁸ Then he said, "Your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with men, and have prevailed."

Prayer Meditation: Genesis 32:28

Father, help us to admit who we really are in order that we will become who you desire us to be.

SHOW ME YOUR GLORY

The Knowledge of God

David McConnell

Sermon Text

Psalm 139 (CSB)

¹LORD, you have searched me and known me. ²You know when I sit down and when I stand up; you understand my thoughts from far away. ³You observe my travels and my rest; you are aware of all my ways. ⁴Before a word is on my tongue, you know all about it, LORD. ⁵You have encircled me; you have placed your hand on me. ⁶This wondrous knowledge is beyond me. It is lofty; I am unable to reach it....¹³For it was you who created my inward parts; you knit me together in my mother's womb. ¹⁴I will praise you because I have been remarkably and wondrously made. Your works are wondrous, & I know this very well. ¹⁵My bones were not hidden from you when I was made in secret, when I was formed in the depths of the earth. ¹⁶Your eyes saw me when I was formless; all my days were written in your book and planned before a single one of them began. ¹⁷God, how precious your thoughts are to me; how vast their sum is!...²³Search me, God, and know my heart; test me and know my concerns. ²⁴See if there is any offensive way in me; lead me in the everlasting way.
