Today's Text: Jonah 1:17-2:10

1:17 God delivers His _____, even from their _____.

The sinner goes down. He begins the descent by his own acts of folly. He tries to run from the will of God, and he trips on his own dangling shoelaces. It is just a fact: nothing can be in its right order when you are living in rebellion against God. You will go down too if you walk out of harmony with His will. But rejoice in the grace of our God! For those who are his own, even the downward movement manifests the good intent of God. - O Palmer Robertson

2:1-2 God may use times of _____ to draw us closer to Himself in earnest prayer, and when needed, _____.

With 20/20 hindsight, we can see that the most important lessons we have learned in life are the result of God's severe mercies. They are events that were difficult or even excruciating at the time but later came to yield more good in our lives than we could have foreseen. - Tim Keller

2:3-4 Jonah's life became a sign (Matthew 12:39), not only for Nineveh but for generations to come: God deals strongly with rebellion (_____), yet gives refreshment (_____) to the repentant.

2:5-10 Rather than seek refreshment through repentance, many will stubbornly seek momentary relief or distraction through _____. But when all is called to account, idols cannot _____.

- A life refreshed by the LORD will bear the fruit of _____ to follow Him. Was that not your vow when you were saved? Honor it!!

Jesus the Christ

Jesus Christ has come to save sinners. He died. He rose again. He ascended to the Father. He will come again. His Kingdom will have no end.

*Christ the Lord is risen today, Sons of men and angels say.
Raise your joys and triumphs high; Sing, ye heavens, and earth, reply.*

Soar we now where Christ has led, following our exalted head.

Made like him, like him we rise; Ours the cross, the grave, the skies.

- Charles Wesley
