Today's Text: Jonah 3

3:1 He is a God ready to _____ (Neh 9:17), and when He forgives does not count people's _____ against them (2 Corinthians 5:19).

- Are we willing to give others the same _____ that God gives us?

See Proverbs 17:9

3:2-4 In God's sovereignty, Jonah carried within himself a message of both the _____ and the _____ of God. Jonah preferred judgement for Nineveh (4:2), but faithfulness required that He _____ both.

- The message of God can be shared both faithfully and _____. See Colossians 4:3-6

3:5-6 True repentance comes on account of _____ that is produced when the _____ of the LORD is _____.

- Read Romans 1:16. Food for thought: If the _____ is in the message, does the _____ matter?

3:7-10 Nineveh, part of the Assyrian Empire, was a notoriously _____ people. Their violence is the only sin mentioned in Jonah, and is a reminder that God sees and judges _____.

- God responds when people _____ themselves before Him.
- The authenticity of a repentant heart is shown by outward actions, including earnest _____, turning _____ from sin, and _____ to others.

Jesus the Christ

Jesus Christ has come to save sinners. He died. He rose again. He ascended to the Father. He will come again. His Kingdom will have no end.

- Jesus is the greater _____.

Jesus, like Jonah, had rested three days in the belly of the earth. Jesus, like Jonah, came forth with a commission for reaching the world. Listen again to the words of the resurrected LORD, and note how his commission parallels the command given Jonah 800 years earlier. The theme is repentance and the remission of sins. (Palmer Robertson)

The passage is Luke 24:45-49
